"AND THE WISDOM TO GO TO MEETINGS"

Not long ago I was at an AA meeting, and we were saying the Serenity Prayer. For some reason I started to think of my sponsor. He likes to say that his sponsor always reminded him that the keys to working the A.A. Program were quite simple: "Don't drink, and go to meetings." Thinking of him nearly made me flub the Serenity Prayer—I almost said "God grant me the serenity to accept the things I cannot change, courage to change the things I can, and the wisdom to go to meetings."

Well I'm not advocating changing the Serenity Prayer after it's been part of A.A. since 1941! But my little near-flub, did make me think. Isn't "the wisdom to go to meetings" a pretty essential part of our program? After all, A.A. members, time and time again, tell us that when they are emotionally upset, maybe even in danger of taking a drink, they "need a meeting."

At an A.A. meeting we see our friends, recognize newcomers that need to be helped, laugh a little, drink some coffee, and generally get our minds off whatever might have been bothering us. And, if we CAN'T get our minds off it, we share about it and give our friends the chance to "carry the message" when we need to hear it. That's basic A.A., and it works every day.

"SPECIAL NEEDS"

A friend of mine at the Happy Hour Group, Sam, always touches my heart when he says: "I'm grateful to be sober and at an AA meeting where I can be heard, felt, and understood." What if you could not hear, understand, and, thus, not feel?

Recently, at a Central Committee meeting, I learned about a Special Needs Committee and "Special" needs fellow AA members. One on one, hearing impaired people can communicate in writing. At a meeting, the best available way to carry the message is through a signer. As large a fellowship as AA is in our area, I cannot believe we do not have a signer or signers in our midst.

You, too, can be touched in the heart by signing the message to fellow AA's. You need only call the Central Office and inform them of your "Special" talent.

Happy Hour

A USERS LAMENT

by Michael "Leo" McD.

I remember the day I had to confess my life is unmanageable and I'm powerless.
For that was the day like many others,
for drinks and for drugs I robbed my own brothers.

I had stole every day and wondered what for.
After I did those drugs I'd always want more.
I'd say to myself 'there's folks I won't bother'
until I found myself robbing my father.
I promised I'd never steal from another,
'till the chance came to steal, from my sisters and mother.

When I finally went home that night wanting more,
I seen another victim, my wife, at the door.
I told her big lies about where I had been stole out of her purse and went back out again.
That money I took was for the rent,
My kids clothes and shoes, but I spent every cent.

As I started home to my family
I was hit in the face with reality.
Everyone that I loved was affected by me and I had not cared "THAT'S INSANITY"
Hurting mother and father, my sisters and brothers, my wife and my kids "GOD" knows how many others.

The thing that I found that was so hard to see was that I didn't love anyone especially me.
I'd simply erase every line that I'd draw,
I had even tried robbing my mother-in-law.

Guilt and pain overwhelmed me right up to the day
I got down on my knees and I started to pray, to a power no doubt greater than myself
to restore me to sanity and restore me to health.

Then one early day in the middle of winter
I was guided by "GOD" to a rehab center.
I told my life story and heard many others.
I confessed I was wrong as I prayed I'd recover.
They said books and a home group
and prayer every day and a hard working sponsor, would keep me this way.

Yes I'll always remember when I had to confess to the unmanageability and to powerlessness...

CURSES... A BUSINESS MEETING....

It was a dark, wintry night as I chaired the meeting. The wind howled and the snow was beginning to fall. After the readings were done, I boldly announced that there would be a BUSINESS MEETING immediately following the regular meeting. An eerie silence filled the room, as people looked at one another in disbelief and astonishment.

We began to introduce ourselves. People mumbled their names, some forgot who they were as they squirmed in their chairs to get comfortable. I felt a sense of impending doom, as the meeting progressed. The topic was the importance of meetings. As I called on each member, they seemed confused and had far-away looks in their eyes. I was bewildered by their demeanor. It seemed more like a wake, than an AA meeting.

What had I done? As the meeting came to a close, I once again reminded those present that the BUSINESS MEETING would immediately follow the regular meeting. We said the 'Our Father,' I felt the trembling hands as we prayed. After the "AMEN" was said, turmoil and terror gripped the crowd as they rushed for the door. It wasn't women and children first, it was every one for themselves. The thought of the sinking Titanic crossed my mind with the captain shouting "abandon ship."

I listened for the fire alarm, but heard none. The group squeezed through the now jam packed door to freedom, some dragging their coats as they scurried out, others raced to their waiting cars and sped off into the night.

I had said the brazen words 'BUSINESS MEETING!' I chastised myself severely, for being so thoughtless; I realized that they had more important things to do. Besides, this was job assignment night and we all know what that means! Ugh, coffee, chair, greeter. I had some nerve! After all, these jobs were difficult, to say the least. Take the coffee job for instance, one would have to know how to put water in a pot, add the appropriate amount of coffee, and, this is where it gets tough, PLUG IT IN! Surely a job for an electronics engineer.

At the dreaded BUSINESS MEETING, the usual 6 members attended and graciously volunteered to take the necessary jobs. The lawless crowd was safe for another month! Does this sound familiar?

THE "S" WORD

Don't look now, but someone you know may already have it. That's right, a Service attitude. Hi, I'm Cindy and an Alcoholic.

I would like this to be a mini informational pack. There was a time when I thought I knew everything, now I understand, I know nothing, but....I am learning! I thought all those people out there doing "service" (good grief, that's almost like saying, shhhh, work) were out there all by their lonesome. But, with a little bit of time and clearing of the mind, I found out that there are service committees. What used to scare me was that I was going to be out there all by myself with no support, no back-up, no one to hold my hand, and no one to share my terror. I alone, was going to do what no man could do. Well folks, you know the rest.

What I have found out about these "service committees" which were created, designed or whatever, is that they take a "yoke!" like me by the hand, give me support, back me up, relieve my terror and let me know, that I'm not alone.

The Service Committees have been formed to act as liaison between (I'll use my committee for an example) the correctional facility and the volunteers who go in. The Correctional Facility Committee lets the facility know that we are out here, and are willing to "carry the message" inside the walls. The CFC helps the individual AA'er who wants to do service in this field, either through the specific facility chairman or directly.

We are there to help people over the rough spots, but most importantly, it's getting the message inside the walls. We let the insiders know that there is a new life on the outside, and they can be part of it, and what is most important...that there is hope.

The CFC is there to provide Big Books and literature to the facility, the purpose of the pink cans at groups. However, CFC is finding that individual chairs are not coming to committee meetings. These meetings are for everyone's benefit!

Another purpose for Committees is the continuation theme. You know, where you don't have to recreate the wheel! Being a participant, I found out, just like my alcoholism, that someone had already been there. Information kind of oozes out when a group of us get together. You will find out that the research has already been done, sound familiar? The CFC has listings of people already cleared to go into the facilities, listings of outside chairmen, listings of inside contacts, listings of times and days of meetings, who can or cannot go in, guidelines to be followed, etc.

It's truly amazing, I found pretty much the same thing when I walked into A.A. I thought I was so special and so unique, only to find out that you also had been there before. I was chairman of a facility for 6 months before I even knew there was an animal called CFC; then a little bear named Sonny, showed me the way. Now, God help me, I am co-chair of the CFC and there is no one here but us chickens. Efen (Chairman, CFC) and I would very much like to help all of those out there who are interested, already a part of, or do not know about the Committee.

Anyone can attend the meeting — it's held the first Sunday of the month at 5:30 p.m. the same location as Central Committee — 80 Goodrich St.

Buffalo. At these meetings you can air how you feel about what's going on, find out about other areas that need to be looked into, new ways of getting others into service, heck you might find out that you're part of the big picture!

While at a facility meeting recently, I mentioned the fact that I never enjoyed being called a "pigeon". Later, my friend, Marcia W., took me aside to tell me the history of the word. It seems, that during WW II pigeons were used to carry messages, get the picture? Our sponsors give us the message that we "pigeons" carry on. Well, hit my head with a tire iron, today I am proud of that name. Maybe, it would do us all a world of good to get a little history and carry the message. Please come join us, we can all carry the message. Join Central Committee, find out what's going on here. Be a part of it. It can only be good.

Thanks for listening, and I hope to see you around.

GETTING INVOLVED

Hello everyone, my name is Jay H. and I'm an Alcoholic and a proud member of the North Buffalo Group.

This year I have the honor of being the Publicity Chair for the 55th Buffalo Fall Convention. I would like to share with you my own experiences with Conventions.

When I had 5 months of Sobriety, my sponsor suggested that it might be good for me to get involved with a convention. I stammered..."what could I possibly do?" He asked me if I could shake hands. I said yes and he proudly stated, "you are now a greeter!"

That job as a greeter made me feel like I was actually a part of that convention and of A.A. I have met so many wonderful people because of that first job. I was told that if I wanted what you have, I had to do what you did, and that was service. That initial job was for 2 hours, but I enjoyed it so much I didn't want to give it up.

After that convention, so many people with years of sobriety knew my name and made me feel welcome at different meetings. I was not alone anymore; at last I belonged somewhere. All of this happened because I got out of myself and took my sponsors suggestion, to get involved, and not ask, "what was in it for me?"

There are plenty of jobs for people at Conventions. There is Hospitality, which deals with making sure everyone gets plenty of coffee. Greeters, who make us feel welcome, and who knows, the hand you shake, may be the one who saves you from taking a drink! There's the Beverage Committee, they each sell pop for an hour at a time. Everyone who worked that Committee said they had a great time, and would gladly do it again, including me. These are just 3 positions that anyone can do, if they want to get involved.

I have worked on these Committees because I believe what we read after the Traditions at my home group:

"I am responsible. When anyone, anywhere, reaches out for help, I want the hand of AA always to be there. And for that: I am responsible."

Sincerely,
Jay H.
North Buffalo

Today I pray that I may understand there are some things I cannot change:

I cannot change the weather.

I cannot change the tick of the clock.

I cannot change the past.

I cannot change another person against their will.

I cannot change what is right and wrong.

I cannot change the fact that a relationship ended.

I can stop worrying over that which I cannot change and enjoy living more!

I can place those things into the hands of the One who is bigger than I.

Save energy. Let go. Instead of trying to change someone else:

I can change my attitude.

I can change my list of priorities.

I can change my bad habits into good ones.

I can move from the place of brokenness into wholeness, into the beautiful person God created me to become.

Happiness is not a matter of good fortune or worldly possessions. It's a mental attitude. It comes from appreciating what we have, instead of being miserable about what we don't have. It's so simple - yet so hard for the human mind to comprehend.

COURTESY DAILY REFLECTIONS

THE ENVELOPE SYSTEM

The purpose of this article is two-fold:

- 1.) To explain how the envelope system works;
- 2.) To share with you my motivation for serving as Envelope System Chairman.

The envelope system is a simple method for AA members to contribute directly towards paying the expenses of operating the Buffalo Central Office.

The AA member sends in a contribution in whatever amount he or she chooses (suggested minimum is $1.) The frequency of contributing is also up to the AA member. There is no pledge of amount to be contributed, no obligation to continue contributing. The AA member can contribute whatever amount he or she wants, as often as they want and for as long as they want to contribute.

To become a member of the envelope system, the AA member submits their full name and address to the envelope system chairman, who sends the new member a numbered contribution sheet. The new member then sends a contribution with the numbered contributions sheet to the Buffalo Central Office. On the numbered contributions sheet, the member designates how often they wish to submit contributions, monthly, every 2 or 3 months or annually. In any case, there is no obligation, either in amount or frequency of contributions.

Personal anonymity is guarded by the envelope system chairman, he is the only person who knows the identify and amount of contributions from the envelope system members.

As of May 1st, 1996 there are 83 members of the envelope system. Total contributions for 1995 were $5,867.00.

My personal motivation for serving as envelope system chairman goes back to 1971. It was a Friday A.M. and I was in the throes of another hangover, experiencing the usual physical and mental anguish. With a shaking hand I picked up the phone and called one of the government sponsored agencies on alcoholism. I was informed that maybe I would be able to secure an appointment with one of their counselors in 2 or 3 weeks. I abandoned that avenue and called AA- Buffalo Central Office. Harry D. was Executive Secretary at the time. My recollection of the telephone conversation is that Harry was very understanding of my dilemma, and offered me immediate counsel. He directed me to an AA meeting that very afternoon. My anxiety was much relieved and I went to my very first AA meeting that Friday afternoon. Like many of us, I found it necessary to go back out and prove to myself further, that I was indeed an Alcoholic. By the grace of God and AA, I was able to find my way back to AA the following year, and have been blessed with continuous sobriety ever since. The first seed was planted when Harry D. answered the phone. If there had been no Central Office, no phone, no AA member to answer it; chances are more than 50% that I would be either incarcerated or dead today. That is why I am motivated to serve as Envelope System Chairman. The Envelope System helps to pay the telephone and operating expenses of the Buffalo Central Office. In this way, the Envelope System helps to "carry the message" to alcoholics all over the world. I have a strong desire to see that continue.

If you would like to become a member of the Envelope System, simply fill in the information below and mail to: Buffalo Central Office, Room 845- Ellicott Square Building, 295 Main St. Buffalo, NY 14203.
