A CENTRAL COMMITTEE JOURNAL FOR ALL A.A. MEMBERS
OF WESTERN NEW YORK AND THE NIAGARA FRONTIER

YOU CAN'T GET MUGGED IN A DARK ALLEY
IF YOU DON'T WALK IN DARK ALLEYS.

JUST FOR TODAY.....

Just for Today I will try to live through this day only, and not tackle my whole life problem at once. I can do something for twelve hours that would appall me if I felt that I had to keep it up for a lifetime.

Just for Today I will adjust myself to what is, and not try to adjust everything to my own desires. I will take my "luck" as it comes, and fit myself to it.

Just for Today I will have a program. I may not follow it exactly, but I will have it. I will save myself from two pests: hurry and indecision.

Just for Today I will exercise my soul in three ways: 1.) I will do somebody a good turn and not get found out -- if anybody knows of it, it will not count; 2.) I will do at least two things I don't want to do -- just for exercise; and 3.) I will not show anyone that my feelings are hurt -- they may be hurt, but today I will not show it.

Just for Today I will be agreeable. I will look as well as I can, dress becomingly, talk low, be courteous, criticize not one bit, not find fault with anything and not try to improve or regulate anybody except myself.

AN EFFECTIVE SOLVENT

Alcohol is a product of amazing versatility:

It will remove stains from designer clothes. It will also remove the clothes off your back. If it is used in sufficient quantity, alcohol will remove furniture from the home, rugs from the floor, food from the table, lining from the stomach, vision from the eyes and judgment from the mind. Alcohol will remove good reputations, good jobs, good friends, happiness from children's hearts, sanity, freedom, spouses, relationships.

Mans ability to adjust and live with his fellow man.
And even life itself. As a remover of things, alcohol has no equal.

"EXPERIENCE, STRENGTH AND HOPE"

By Cindy N. Staff Reporter

ANOTHER ONE BITES THE DUST

"...if each of us stays active in our 'Home Group,' emptying ashtrays, making coffee, rotating onto steering committees, opening and closing up buildings, taking the Steps and following the Traditions- our 'Home Group' will not only survive, it will be there for days, months and years to come, offering all of us the loving, joyful and free life that A.A., has to give, not only for us, but to all who follow us in this life of giving." Service Manual, P. S49.

You say you belong to a Home Group, so what do you do for it? Thursday Night Bidwell, which was one of the oldest groups in the Buffalo area, has died! When this group began, ladies wore gloves, men wore suits, real coffee cups with saucers were used, and home-made cookies were served. Discussions actually centered on sobriety, and what could be done for the sick and suffering alcoholic. There was singleness of purpose. If we do not stick to these principles, we shall almost surely collapse. And if we collapse, we cannot help anyone. * Lack of funds, lack of love of Home Group and general apathy crippled this group. These symptoms, seem to be prevalent in other groups, and very contagious in our area. What have you done for your Home Group recently? Please stop waiting for someone else to do it. When was the last time your Group did a Group Inventory?

When your group chairperson asks if there is anyone here for their first meeting, does your group do nothing more than applaud the newcomer? The newcomer is exactly why we are here. Does anyone take him or her aside after the meeting? Is your group attractive enough to come back to? Does the newcomer really welcomed? Along with attending to the immediate needs of the newcomer, an idea that has caught on in other areas, is the beginner package. What's that? Well, it's a little package of AA literature ( i.e., A Newcomer Asks, Is AA For You....Me, This is AA, How It Works, etc., and a schedule.)

Staying sober is much more than just not taking a drink, it is saying "Please in the AM, and Thank You in the PM," Faith without works is dead. It is a misnomer, and just as much a con as when you were out there drinking. Just skimming by is not going to make it. When was just a little, good enough, when we were drinking?

In reading the minutes from the 47th Annual Meeting of the General Service Conference, one can find some pretty profound stuff, such as:....asking God, with no strings attached, for the strength and guidance to get through it. He did, and led me to AA. He did not do that directly. Rather, He provided me with a variety of " spiritual" people who brought me here and led me down the path of recovery. ...I put the word spiritual in quotation marks for a reason, that being I had no idea what it meant....I do recall someone, at some crucial point, stating " religion is studying the words and spirituality is putting it to work." Bingo! Spiritual meant doing the work, and that is what people here were doing. They were doing the work. I got sober not by studying the Big Book, but by doing the Big Book, and I stayed sober by doing the work. Spirituality is work." Think about it, what are you doing for your sobriety, and the good of AA today? Don't forget the Fall Convention, November 21,22, 23. Marriott Hotel Buffalo, N.Y. Also NERC October 17-19, Kiamesha Lake, N.Y. (*Bill W.)

TWO OUNCES A DAY

After a little sobriety, some of the craziness of my drinking days gets to be funny. It feels good to laugh about it, but it's bittersweet humor with an edge of pathos, and lunacy not far below the surface. When someone bristles at the word "insanity" in Step Two, I remember that I did, too-- and I think of this episode.

A few months before I stopped drinking, I took my first physical in years. I took a bunch of tests, and my liver put some bad numbers on the board.

"Did I drink?" the doctor asked.

"Some", I said.

He said he wanted me to limit myself, to two ounces a day, or risk serious damage to my liver.

"Would that be a problem?"

"No problem", I said.

I didn't want to blow out my liver, but I didn't want to give up martinis, either. So I tiptoed up the edge of the limit the doctor had set. Each day I took my bottle of gin and my measuring cup and poured precisely two ounces for my single, skimpy martini. I felt deprived, of course, but kept it up for a week.

Then I got to thinking. The doctor said two ounces of alcohol, and this gin was only eighty proof -- just forty percent alcohol--so I was shortchanging myself. I did the math. To get two ounces of real alcohol, I'd have to drink five ounces of gin!

So I measured out the more generous serving for another week or so, but still felt cramped. I was a busy guy, after all, and didn't have time to fool with measuring cups. What the doctor really meant, I decided, was to limit myself to two drinks a day. So I forgot about the measuring cup and made myself two martinis a day -- in a glass the size of a goldfish bowl.

Of course, even that discipline soon was abandoned.

My mental gyrations made perfect sense at the time, but a little sobriety made me see the bizarre episode for what it was: A doctor told me that I faced serious health problems because I was drinking too much, and I responded by playing games.

If he told me that chocolate bars were causing a life-threatening problem, I wouldn't merely have cut back; I would have quit, that day, because chocolate bars weren't that important to me. And that's the insanity: Alcohol had become important enough to me to die for.

DON'T GET LEFT OUT

Banquet tickets for the 56th Buffalo AA Fall Convention are selling quickly. If you would like to attend or your group would like to reserve an entire table, fill out the registration form on page 7 and mail it as soon as possible. For your own protection, do not send cash through the mail. Most of the tables accommodate ten people, however, this year we have a limited number of tables for 12 people. If you have any questions, do not hesitate to call the registration chairman, John H. at 668-0848.

If you have never been to a convention before, come join us. It's an experience you'll never forget!

PINK CANS

What is it? The pink can is for donations to the Correctional Facility Committee to buy literature to go into a Correctional Facility. This has been a rousing success in the past. Once again the CFC is requesting groups to bring the pink can back out. How about leaving it next to the coffee pot? Every dime counts. The people behind the walls need our support.

ThankYou
Cindy N.

To: The Buffalo Outside Speakers / Visitors
From: Leonard F., Chairman, Attica Beacon Group

As chairman of the Attica Beacon Group, I would like to extend my deepest thanks to those of you who took the time to help us and visit us here at the Attica Beacon Group. Sharing your Experience, Strength and hope with us gives us hope for the future. If by sharing your hopes with our group helps to save one soul in here, then your life shall have meaning, and you have carried the Message. So many of us feel abandoned by our loved ones in this depressing atmosphere. Your smiles and happy faces tell us there is another way. Those of us in the Attica Group will be forever grateful to all of you. I encourage you all to keep coming and support us in our search for sobriety. We will always welcome you.

I was a member of this group for many years before becoming the Chairman, you have given me the strength I needed to stand on my own two feet, and know that AA is waiting for me with a new life when I am released in a few months.

It's been a long, rough ride in this uncommon stockade, but the Books and other Literature you have given us, help us to see that there is hope.

Don't ever get discouraged and forget us in here, we need your help. We missed some of you at this years picnic, but we understand. Your prayers and your support are much needed by the men in here. Those of us in prison know that there is a new life waiting for us on the outside. What I love about AA is, that I can give back what was so freely given to me.

Thank you

AA VOLUNTEERS WELCOME

Do you have an extra hour a month you can spare? Please consider joining the Correctional Facility Committee. We meet at 5:30 Pm every first Sunday of the Month, 80 Goodrich, Buffalo, N.Y. Come and find out what you can do. You don't have to go into a Facility.

We will be happy to come to your Home Group and tell your group what we are all about. Contact can be made through the Central Office. Speaking of contact, how about corresponding with an inmate? Or perhaps be his or her first contact out of prison? Please consider this very important form of service. If you're interested, please call 883- 5079.

Last, but not least, please bring any AA materiel you are willing to part with, to the Central Committee for pick up and distribution to the prisons.

Thank you,
Cindy N.

Wrote further letters to 3 interested inmates who want to participate in the Bridging the Gap program and sent them on to the Niagara Falls contact; sent schedules to 2 other inmates requesting Bridging the Gap program information.

Received a call regarding situation at Wende; talked with volunteer supervisor who in turn spoke with counselors. They saw no problem.

Attended 3rd Annual Corrections Connection in Auburn, New York. Brought the Wende situation up at this meeting. The NYSDOCS supervisors were unaware of some practices and are going to look into it. Credit card idea for all facilities.

Communications are opening up with the NY-PENN Corrections Committee. October 1 was their semi-annual meeting and all is reportedly going well. Was able to share avenues of receiving literature for the facilities.

We will have a table with a literature drop box at the GSA Fall Day of Learning; and we will also have a panel.
