I DON'T FEEL AS IF I BELONG ANYMORE

Some time ago, I was shocked to hear a few old-timers say they didn't feel as if they belonged to AA anymore. I was shocked mostly because I felt the same way. I had to ask myself, whose responsibility is it if I don't feel I belong?

Upon reflection, I recalled that when I first joined AA in 1976, I didn't feel like I "belonged" for a long time-not until I worked through the Twelve Steps with a sponsor. To this day, that same sponsor still works with newcomers and participates at the "entry level" in the AA program.

When I first came in, I was willing to go to any lengths for my sobriety. How did I feel about that now, in my twenty-third year?

I realized that maybe I wasn't as willing as I used to be. The thrill of early sobriety was gone. Could it be recaptured? Was I willing to make myself available? When asked, would I do anything requested from an AA member?

I soon admitted that even though I still went to meetings and sponsored people, my attitude had changed from the zeal of a newcomer to the complacency that comes with not participating to the extent I needed to. I realized that just because I was an old-timer of sorts, I was not giving at the level I was capable of. I was participating on a qualified basis at a level convenient for me. Maybe it was time to change my attitude and become more open to the things I'd found so satisfying in my early recovery.

With this new attitude, I was soon blessed with several new people to work with. I found much more enjoyment and enrichment at meetings. I began to reread the AA books and about our co-founders and the Traditions. I tried my best to provide my experience, strength and hope in those situations I'd been leaving up to others. I tried to truly participate.

Now I feel connected again and am enjoying AA every bit as much as I did as a newcomer.

Chances are every old-timer goes through this. When it happens, the best solution is to seek humility and realize we are only one drink away from a drunk, no matter how long we have been in the Fellowship. Numerous old-timers have paid the price for complacency. If we feel out of touch, let's take a personal inventory, not about what we doing or not doing, but about our attitudes, motives, and especially our First Step. We are either alcoholics or we are not. If I am an alcoholic, have I slipped out of recovery into complacency? Alcoholism is cunning, baffling, and powerful. IT can strike no matter how long we have been in AA if we become spiritually unfit. And besides, the Fellowship needs us. I often ask myself the question: where did all the old-timers go?

MY MEMORIES OF SOME OLD TIMERS

The meeting (in 1976) was at the Williamsville Group on North Forest, a closed meeting. At the time of opening the meeting, there were approximately 75 in attendance. Numerous tables were announced. Bob "The Milkman" I. and myself had a very fine intimate meeting that night. Since my youngest son was in the initial stages of recovery from 2 major brain surgeries, my need for the love of AA was quite pronounced. The love that was mine to receive that night was abundant. Thanks and praise to God.

Bob U. was a crusty old codger. At the time of his death a few years ago he was sober for over 20 years. One time he and I were talking about his attendance at a wedding reception for one of his family members. It seems as though a couple of his younger nephews had some members of Bob's "prior life". They asked why he was not drinking. Bob replied that there was not enough booze there to satisfy him. They responded by pointing out to him the long bar with all forms of booze being served. He responded "Yep, that's not enough to satisfy me - when the go out and get plenty more I'll join in the drinking." Bob's nephews apparently walked away shaking their heads in confusion. Bob and I shared a good laugh.

Joe B. was a member of the North Buffalo Group at the time of his death a few years ago from cancer. He had over twenty years of sobriety at that time. Joe was one of my sponsors. He was being given hospice care in his home and knew that the end of this life was with sight. My wife, my mother and myself were privileged to be invited to a dinner party that Joe put at the Park Lane Restaurant on Delaware Avenue to bid adieu. My last words to Joe were to ask him to tell Ralph T., Bill S., and those guys 'hello' for me. He said that he would and then responded: "This sure as hell beats an Irish wake doesn't it?" It seems to me that AA is not only teaching me how to live, but also how to die, with dignity.

MY FRIEND TURNED ALCOHOL

I trusted you, I loved you, I fought against you and for you. Just as I loved you I have grown to hate you. Why, my friend, have you turned against me?

I was never your friend, you poor fool! I have always been your enemy. When you drank from me, I immediately knew that I could be your enemy. You who thought you could not sleep, eat or venture out with out unless I was by your side. You poor person! You have decided to cork me and now my friend I have turned against you.

SPIRITUAL RENEWAL

Recently I came to one of those turning points in my recovery, where I was beginning to feel stagnant (another word for restless, irritable and discontent), and I knew in my heart it was time for some action and soon. A God-incidence let me to an opportunity to "re-work" through the steps in a way I had never done before. One of the suggestions in working the 3rd step was to develop and recite the 3rd step prayer. The prayer that filled my heart is the meaning of the 3rd step prayer, as I understand it today. It was suggested that I share it with all of you.

Big Book

God, I offer myself to Thee; relieve me of the bondage of self, so that I may better do Thy will. Take away my difficulties so that victory over them may bear witness to those I would help of Thy power, Thy love and Thy way of life. May I always do your will.

My Heart

God, I humbly surrender my will to You. Lift from me the cloak of my own limited and shortsighted understanding so that my actions may become beacons of Your love and expressions of my trust in You. Remove those things from my life that are keeping others from seeing Your light in me; so that others may see a way to You, in action and in truth - an affirmation in me of all that is good. Help me to remember whose child I am, and act accordingly.

STEP 10
CONTINUED TO TAKE PERSONAL INVENTORY AND WHEN WE WERE WRONG PROMPTLY ADMITTED IT.

As we practice Step Ten we learn that there is the moral inventory, which we took when we did Step Four. There is the spot check inventory; we could start our day over any time we wanted to. Then there is the nightly inventory we take at the end of our day where we carefully look for selfishness, dishonesty, resentment and fear. When these crop up we ask God at once to remove them, we discuss them with someone immediately and make amends quickly if we harmed anyone. Going to someone in sobriety and promptly admit harm done is hard; when we were drinking we did not care. Every day is a day when we must carry the vision of God's will into our activities. "How can I best serve Thee – Thy will (not mine) be done." These are thoughts which must go with us constantly. We can exercise our will power along this line all we wish. It is the proper use of will.

Carl K., Downtown Men

TENTH STEP THOUGHT

I pray I may continue to grow in understanding and effectiveness; To take daily spot check inventories of myself; to correct mistakes when I make them; to take responsibility for my actions; to be ever aware of my negative and self defeating attitudes and behavior; to keep my willfulness in check; to always remember I need your help; to keep love and tolerance of others my code; and to continue in daily prayer how I can best serve you my Higher Power.

PERSEVERANCE

For about 8 years I have tried to get sober and I would be able to stay away from alcohol. For 3, 6, and 9 months I still returned to alcohol beating my head against the wall time and time again. With the consequences getting worse each time I went back to drinking, yet I continued to drink, until I could not function any more. Not until I came to at a hospital, getting last rites. Was I willing to put that energy into recovery and willing to take suggestions that were given to me from members that came before me?

From that day forward I have been willing to follow directions. Which are the 12 steps to recovery and my life is getting better one day at a time. I ask my Higher Power on a daily basis how can I best serve you and not myself.

Chris F., Any Age

TRADITION 10
ALCOHOLICS ANONYMOUS HAS NO OPINION ON OUTSIDE ISSUES:
HENCE THE A.A. NAME OUGHT NEVER BE DRAWN INTO PUBLIC CONTROVERSY.

Everyone has an opinion about some issue, and someone has an opinion about every issue. Essentially though, we AA's as a group must keep our focus on getting sober, staying sober, and helping other alcoholics. As a college student, I sat around and pontificated on all sorts of issues. I surely knew how the government could solve all the problems of the nation but I did all of this while drinking up a storm. In my new life of sobriety, I find it a full time task to take care of myself because now taking care of myself means I choose to give away the things I learn in sobriety. There is no time to sit around and shoot out opinions about every issue under the sun. As a group, we also have the responsibility to share our experience, strength and hope with other AAs and to let go of old ways of wasting time criticizing how other people live their lives.

Marie S., Live and Let Live

CONCEPT TEN: EVERY SERVICE RESPONSIBILITY SHOULD BE MATCHED BY AN EQUAL SERVICE AUTHORITY -- THE SCOPE OF SUCH AUTHORITY TO BE ALWAYS WELL DEFINED WHETHER BY TRADITION, RESOLUTION, BY A SPECIFIC JOB DESCRIPTION, OR BY APPROPRIATE CHARTERS AND BYLAWS.

There's Bill and his legal language again. But actually an outstanding characteristic of every good operational structure, is that it guarantees harmonious and effective function by relating its several parts and people in such a way that none can doubt what their respective responsibilities and corresponding authorities actually are. Unless these attributes are well defined, unless those holding the final authority are able and willing to properly delegate a suitable operational authority; unless those holding such delegated authority feel able and willing to use it freely as trusted servants, and unless there exists some definite means of interpreting and deciding doubtful situations, then personal clashes, confusions and ineffectiveness will be inevitable. The influence of ultimate authority must always be felt, but it is perfectly clear that when delegated authority is operating well, it should be left alone.

It's fine for the secretary to have the responsibility to go and buy the cookies, and with this responsibility, to make whatever selection of cookies she wants to. But, she must also know the limit of her responsibility -- that limit might be that she had to function on a budget, and it would not be her decision as to whether there would be an extra dozen cookies that week.

So let us always be sure there is an abundance of final or ultimate authority to correct or to reorganize, but let us be equally sure that all of our trusted servants have a clearly defined and adequate authority to do their daily work and to discharge their clear responsibilities. All of this is implied in A.A.'s Tradition Two -- Here we see the group conscience as the ultimate authority and the trusted servant as the delegated authority. One cannot function without the other.
