How Can AA Survive?

I came across this and, once I had finished smiling, recognized the essential truth (as I see it) of what the author wrote.

"Alcoholics Anonymous is a fellowship designed and administered by a bunch of ex-drunks whose only qualification for membership is that we finally realized that we can't hold our liquor and we want to stop trying to impossibly learn how to hold it successfully. It has no rules, dues or fees, nor anything else that any sensible organization seems to require.

At meetings the speaker starts on one subject and winds up talking about something entirely different and concludes by saying he doesn't know anything about the program, except that it works. The groups are often broke yet always seem to have money to carry on. We are always losing members but seem to grow. We claim AA is a selfish program but always seem to be doing something for others. Every group passes laws, rules, edicts and pronouncements, which everyone blithely ignores. Members who disagree with anything are free to walk out in a huff, quitting forever, only to return as though nothing happened and are greeted accordingly. Nothing we discuss in AA is ever planned in advance yet great results are born from the things we share with each other and our lives get better.

How can we survive like this? Perhaps it's because we have learned to live and laugh at ourselves and with each other. God made us. He made laughter too. Perhaps He is pleased with our disorganized efforts and makes things right no matter who pushes the wrong buttons. Maybe He is pleased with our simple yet sincere efforts to do what's right for ourselves and others. Maybe He is pleased with our trying to be nobody but ourselves.

We don't know how it works, but it does and members keep receiving their dividend checks from their AA investments. It is wise to be sober, and it is much easier, my friends, to stay sober than to get sober."

MAKE AN EFFORT

Faith Hope and Love cannot be bought, sold or bartered, but only given away. They are wellsprings – firm and deep – gifts without price, incapable of imitation, discovered only within oneself, and are, therefore, unique. They are not always easy to come by, but they are in unlimited supply.

So, today, let us seek to mend a quarrel. Seek out a forgotten friend. Dismiss a suspicion, and replace it with trust. Write a Love letter. Share a treasure. Give a soft answer. Encourage youth. Manifest your loyalty in word and deed. Keep a promise. Listen. Listen even harder. Apologize if you are wrong. Try to understand. Examine your demand on others. Think first of someone else. Appreciate life. Be kind. Be gentle. Laugh a little more. Deserve confidence. Advocate against any malice in the world. Express your gratitude. Seek out and express your spiritual life. Welcome a stranger. Gladden the heart of a child. Take pleasure in the beauty and wonder of this earth. Be tolerant of those different from yourself. Give thanks for all that you have been given. Love yourself.

All of these are simple things; we've heard them all before, and their influence cannot be measured. If we all make a conscious effort we can make a world of difference in our lives and the lives of others.

Step 9 ~ Made direct amends to such people wherever possible, except when to do so would injure them or others.

Good judgement, a careful sense of timing, courage, and prudence – these are the qualities we shall need when we take Step Nine.

After we have made the list of people we have harmed, have reflected carefully upon each instance, and have tried to possess ourselves of the right attitude in which to proceed, we will see that the making of direct amends divides those we should approach into several classes. There will be those who ought to be dealt with just as soon as we become reasonably confident that we can maintain our sobriety. There will be those to whom we can only make partial restitution, lest complete disclosures do them or others more harm than good. There will be other cases where action ought to be deferred, and still others in which by the very nature of the situation we shall never be able to make direct personal contact at all.

12 & 12 ~ page 83

Now we go out to our fellows and repair the damage done in the past.

Remember we agreed at the beginning we would go to any lengths for victory over alcohol.

... our man is sure to be impressed with a sincere desire to set right the wrong. He is going to be more interested in a demonstration of good will than in our talk of spiritual discoveries.

The question of how to approach the man we hated will arise. It may be he has done us more harm than we have done him and, though we may have acquired a better attitude toward him, we are still not too keen about admitting our faults. Nevertheless, with a person we dislike, we take the bit in our teeth. It is harder to go to an enemy than to a friend, but we find it much more beneficial to us. We go to him in a helpful and forgiving spirit, confessing our former ill feeling and expressing our regret.

Under no condition do we criticize such a person or argue. Simply we tell him that we will never get over drinking until we have done our utmost to straighten out the past. We are there to sweep off our side of the street, realizing that nothing worth while can be accomplished until we do so, never trying to tell him what he should do. His faults are not discussed. We stick to our own. If our manner is calm, frank, and open, we will be gratified with the result.

Alcoholics Anonymous pg. 76-78

Tradition 9 ~ A. A., as such, ought never be organized; but we may create service boards or committees directly responsible to those they serve.

LONG FORM: Each A.A. group needs the least possible organization. Rotating leadership is the best. The small group may elect a secretary, the large group its rotating committee, and groups of a large metropolitan area their central or intergroup committee, which often employs a full-time secretary. The trustees of the General Service Board are, in effect, our A.A. General Service Committee. They are the custodians of our A.A. Tradition and the receivers of voluntary A.A. contributions by which we maintain our A.A. General Service Office at New York. They are authorized by the groups to handle our overall public relations and they guarantee the integrity of our principal newspaper, the A.A. Grapevine. All such representatives are to be guided in the spirit of service, for true leaders in A.A. are but trusted and experienced servants of the whole. They derive no real authority from their titles; they do not govern. Universal respect is the key to their usefulness.

Hello God, I called tonight to talk a little while,
I need a friend who'll listen to my anxiety and trial.
You see, I can't quite make it through a day just on my own,
I need your love to guide me, so I'll never feel alone,
I want to ask you please to keep my family safe and sound,
Come and fill their lives with confidence for whatever fate they're bound.
Give me faith, dear God, to face each hour throughout the day.
And not to worry over things I can't change anyway.
I thank you God, for being home and listening to my call,
For giving me such good advice when I stumble and fall.
Your number, God, is the only one that answers every time.
I never get a busy signal, never had to pay a dime.
So thank you, God, for listening to my troubles and my sorrow.
Good night, God, I love You, too, And I'll call again tomorrow!

My Mind Is Out To Get Me

Submitted by John H. ~ Sunday Morning Breakfast

"Coincidence: God performs a little miracle and wishes to remain anonymous."

"The best fringe benefit of being in AA is that you never have to be alone again."

"Never underestimate the power of prayer or the passage of time."

"God can't hand you anything new until you let go of what you're holding."

"Carry your strength, hope and experience to those people you find attractive and, especially, to those you don't."

ONLY 31 PAGES LATER THE BEDEVILMENTS ARE REPLACED BY THE PROMISES

THE BEDEVILMENTS (page 52)

We were having trouble with personal relationships.

We couldn't control our emotional natures.

We were a prey to misery and depression.

We couldn't make a living.

We had a feeling of uselessness.

We were full of fear.

We were unhappy.

We couldn't seem to be of real help to other people.

And, most of all,

THE PROMISES (page 83)

We will lose interest in selfish things and gain interest in our fellows. Self-seeking will slip away.

We will comprehend the word serenity and we will know peace.

Our whole attitude and outlook upon life will change.

Fear of people and of economic insecurity will leave us.

That feeling of uselessness and self-pity will disappear.

We will intuitively know how to handle situations which used to baffle us.

We are going to know a new freedom and a new happiness.

No matter how far down the scale we have gone, we will see how your experience can benefit others.

We will not regret the past nor wish to shut the door on it. We will suddenly realize that God is doing for us what we could not do for ourselves.

Mixture

from: "Because I'm an Alcoholic"

"I found that now I could do many things without a drink - write, answer the telephone, eat out, go to parties, make love, get through the day and the evenings. Sleep at night and get up the next morning ready to begin another day. I was amazed and proud to have gone a week without a drink, then a month. Then I lived an entire year sober, through my birthday, Christmas, problems, successes, the mixture that makes up life."

© 2001, Alcoholics Anonymous, page 345

Heard at a meeting:

- When the student is ready, the teacher will appear.
- You don't have to go to prison to do time, you can do time in your own mind.
(Lou R.)
- If God was small enough for me to understand, He wouldn't be big enough to be God!!!
(Alan P.)
- Resentment is not getting my way yesterday. Anger is not getting my way today. Fear is not getting my way tomorrow. (Leslie A.)

RULE 62

- Today is tomorrow's yesterday. If you are longing for the 'good old days', you're there pal.
- Nothing produces such odd results as trying to get even.
- Talk is cheap because supply exceeds demand.
- Nothing is real until it's experienced. Until then it's just hear say.
- Five words vital to a health relationship: "I apologize" & "You are right."

Twelve Ways To Tell The Difference Between Your Sponsor And Your Therapist

1. Your sponsor isn't all that interested in the "reasons" you drank.
2. Your therapist thinks your root problem is your lack of self-esteem, negative self-image, and your poor self-concept. Your sponsor thinks your problem is a 3-letter word with no hyphens.
3. Your therapist wants you to pamper your "inner child." Your sponsor thinks it ought to be spanked.
4. Your sponsor thinks your inventory should be about you, not your parents.
5. Speaking of your parents, your sponsor tells you not to confront them, but to make amends to them.
6. The only time your sponsor uses the word "closure" is before the word "mouth."
7. Your sponsor thinks "boundaries" are things you need to take down not build up.
8. Your therapist wants you to love yourself first; your sponsor wants you to love others first.
9. Your therapist prescribes care taking and medication. Your sponsor prescribes prayer making and meditation.
10. Your sponsor thinks "anger management skills" are numbered 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, and 12.
11. Now that you haven't had a drink in six months, your therapist thinks you should make a list of your goals and objectives for the next five years, starting with finishing up that college degree. Your sponsor thinks you should start today by cleaning the coffeepots, helping him carry a heavy box of literature to the jail, and making your bed.
12. Your sponsor won't lose his license to practice if he talks about God.

Buffalo Central Committee

September 7, 2003

Mike D. opened the meeting at 7:00PM, with a moment of silence and the Serenity Prayer. Mark McB. from Abbott Men's' read the purpose of Central Committee, Brendan F, also of Abbott Men's', read the Traditions. John H. from Gardenville moved to dispense with the reading of last months minutes, seconded by Lee M.

37 Groups Attended: District #1: Cornplanters Again, Downtown Men's, F.U.N., Journey, Main and High, Sunday Niters, Sunrise Court, Those Too, You'll Neyer Walk Alone. District #2: Chapter IX, Early Bird, North Buffalo, Ride Sober, Three Legacies. District #3: Abbott Men's, Cazenovia, Father Baker, Gardenville, New Life, Ridge, South Town, Southgate, The Book Meeting, Victory. District #4: Patchin, St. Mark's, Springville Tuesday Night. District #5: No groups. District # 6: Amsdell Lakeshore, Go To Any Lengths, Lakeshore. District #7: Buffalo, Community Center, Ellicott, Fresh Start, Let Go and Let God, Lovejoy, Spirit of Hope. District #8: No groups.

COMMITTEE REPORTS:

ENVELOPE SYSTEM: Karen S. gave this report. $277.00 has been donated as of August 15th. Yea to date total is $3883. Overall, donations are down from last year.

STEERING COMMITTEE: Parker O'M gave this report. Present at Steering Committee were Representatives from Districts #1, #3, #4, #8. Also attending were the Chair and Co-Chair of WNY Central Committee, as well as our Executive Secretary. Incorporating the Central Office was discussed. A preliminary request from the 2003 IAAWC to use our bulk-mailing permit resulted in a decision that we could not legally allow this. Also, issues regarding a treatment facility's volunteer list were brought up. While we seek to cooperate with such institutions, we must never give the impression that we are affiliated with them. Discussed nominations for officers and Steering Committee reps. Chair of Central Committee to request update from ad hoc Committee on moving office.

FINANCIAL REPORT: No report again.

TREATMENT: Tom C. gave report. All meetings covered, ECMC coverage sketchy. The Treatment Facility Committee monthly meeting will remain at the same location, but will be at 9PM instead of 7PM. Watch bulletin for info. Under new business, the need for a contact phone number was discussed.

CORRECTIONS: Bob G. gave this report. Table needed for CFC meeting. The response from last month's flyer distribution was disappointing. Meeting at Collins 2 started up again. Support still needed at Collins 2, Wende and Attica. New chairperson needed at end of term (December 2003)

SCREENERS: No report.

CENTRAL OFFICE: Terry B. gave the report. AA 293 calls; 12th step – 10 calls; Alanon: 25, Visitors, 36, Volunteers; 14. Thank you. Applications are filed for non-profit bulk mailing permit. Office is not incorporated, as we believed. Central Office seminar is September 18-21st. Volunteers will cover the office.

PIC: Adolph I. Gave the report. Pamphlets at Erie County Public Library were replenished. On August 17, literature was distributed at the Caribbean Festival at LaSalle Park.

NEW FRONTIER: Debi C. reports her term as editor expires in December. Now is the time to consider a rewarding service opportunity.

62nd BUFFALO FALL CONVENTION: John C. reported on new vegetarian options for the banquet. The color scheme will be blue and gold.

ARCHIVES: Frank M gave this report. Next displays will be at the Buffalo Fall Convention and the Ridge Group anniversary in October. Climate controlled storage was found. Still in need of an archivist.

AD-HOC COMMITTEE: Lee M. reported on status of negotiations. Work will begin in earnest at the first of the year.

RECAP: Several items were discussed during recap. Questions were raised regarding bulk mailing, and several points were clarified regarding prison meetings. Charles from Spirit of Hope questioned whether someone could be consecutively re-elected to Steering Committee. The answer is they can serve, but not consecutively. ECMC has a volunteer list that is not connected to AA. Not our concern. Reports were heard about unchaired meetings at ECMC and Salvation Army. Our status as a non-profit is not affected by incorporation.

OLD BUSINESS: We are still looking for an alternate to learn the treasurer's job. Discussed individual groups needing insurance, can't buy blanket policy since each group is self-supporting.

NEW BUSINESS: Service openings coming up January 1, 2004(Qualifications in parentheses): Co-chair (4years), Financial Chair (5 Years), Recording Secretary (5 Years), Districts #1, #2, #7 & #8 Steering Committee Representatives (3 Years). Nominations for these offices will be in October, voting in November for the year 2004 officers.
