

NEW FRONTIERS

March 2006

THE CENTRAL COMMITTEE NEWSLETTER FOR ALL A.A. MEMBERS OF WESTERN NEW YORK AND THE NIAGARA FRONTIER
We request that this newsletter be kept within the Fellowship to insure anonymity.

All who are interested in participating on the New Frontiers committee should come to the organizational meeting on Sunday April 2nd at 6 PM before the Central Committee meeting.

Third Step:

Made a decision to turn our will and our lives over to the care of God as we understood him.

Meeting Topics:

What evidence is there of having taken the third step?

Three frogs are sitting on a rock and they all make a decision to jump in the water----- how many frogs have jumped in the water?????????

“Alcoholics Anonymous is NOT a religious organization.” (Pg XX – forward to the Second Edition. Alcoholics Anonymous.)

“We thought well before taking this step making sure we were ready; that we could at last abandon ourselves to Him.” (Page 63 – Alcoholics Anonymous.)

Do I believe that my troubles are basically of my own making or is there someone who is more at fault the main reason I can't recover??????

The first requirement for taking the third step is that “we (I) be convinced that any (my) life run on self-will (my-will) can hardly be a success” (Pg 60- Alcoholics Anonymous). Am I convinced??? How did that come about???

Have I quit playing God???

Is God my director????

Am I really one of His children???

Third Tradition:

“The only requirement for AA membership is a desire to stop drinking.”

Discussion Topics:

“At one time, every AA group had many membership rules” ...”If all those rules had been in effect everywhere, nobody could have possibly joined AA at all,...” (Pg 139+140- 12&12)

Does my group have unspoken membership rules????? Have we managed to keep the riff-raff out???

A drug is a drug is a drug???????

Q? Ten people are picked at random on a street corner and forced to inject heroin into their system for 10 days – How many of them will be drug addicts when the ten days have passed????

A. All of them!

Q? Ten people are picked at random on a street corner and are forced to drink one quart of Jack Daniels daily for ten days—How many of them will be alcoholics when the ten days have passed????

A. Only the ones that were alcoholics at the start.

Q? Would you take a bubble bath as an alternative to necessary brain surgery???

Q? Would you take a bubble bath as an alternative to taking the steps???

Q? Would you assume that all addictions respond to the same treatment???

Q? Would you go to a Dr. of Art History instead of a Dr. of Oncology when you have cancer???

Q? Would you find recovery in AA for afflictions other than Alcoholism or is it like the Dr. of Art History vs. the Dr. of Oncology.

“Why did we leave it to each newcomer to decide himself he was an alcoholic and whether he should join us?” (Pg. 141- 12&12)

“... that we must never compel anyone to pay anything, believe anything or conform to anything?” (sic) to be an AA member. (Pg 141-12&12)

“So the hand of Providence early gave us a sign that any alcoholic is a member of our Society when he says so.” (Pg 145- 12&12)

The Third Concept:

"To insure effective leadership, we should endow each element of AA – the Conference, the General Service Board and its service corporations, staffs, committees, and executives –with a traditional "Right of Decision."

Third Legacy ~ Service

Some of us still ask, "Just what is this Third Legacy business anyhow? And just how much territory does 'service' take in?"

Let's begin with my own sponsor, Ebby. When Ebby heard how serious my drinking was, he resolved to visit me. He was in New York; I was in Brooklyn. His resolve was not enough; he had to take action and he had to spend money. He called me on the phone and then got into the subway; total cost, ten cents. At the level of the telephone booth and subway turnstile, spirituality and money began to mix. One without the other would have amounted to nothing at all. Right then and there, Ebby established the principle that A.A. in action calls for the sacrifice of much time and a little money.

GRESHAM'S LAW & ALCOHOLICS ANONYMOUS

HOW DO YOU WANT YOUR CUP OF TEA?

STRONG? - MEDIUM? - WEAK? Gresham's Law - "Bad currency drives out good" - has been operative in the life of Alcoholics Anonymous. Weak AA is tending to drive out strong AA.

This article originally appeared a little over two years after I came to A.A. in the July 1976 issue of "24 Magazine," with the author unknown. Permission was given to reprint. This material should be "required reading" for anyone interested in why AA is not as effective now as it was in prior years, and especially for those people experiencing a "flat recovery," suicidal thoughts, relapse, or repeated relapse.

GRESHAM'S LAW & ALCOHOLICS ANONYMOUS There are three ways to work the program of Alcoholics Anonymous. (1) The strong, original way, proved powerfully and reliably effective over forty years. (2) A medium way - not so strong, not so safe, not so sure, not so good, but still effective. And (3) a weak way, which turns out to be really no way at all but literally a heresy, a false teaching, a twisting corruption of what the founders of Alcoholics Anonymous clearly stated the program to be. As an eleven year member of Alcoholics Anonymous, I am still awed by the combination of simplicity, practicality, and profundity built into the Twelve Steps; the AA recovery plan. This audacious blueprint for life change was drawn up in 1939 by a former dead-end drunk serving as spokesman for an unknown, unproven society of 100 reformed recovery from alcohol addiction. Yet for all their boldness of scope, the Steps are so plainly worded, and so well-explained in chapters five and following of "Alcoholics Anonymous," the AA "Big Book," that they can be done by anyone. And, therein lies their greatest genius. There is no prior requirement of purity of life or advancement of learning. Just a willingness to admit personal defeat and a sincere desire to change.

In those early days of AA there was no talk of suggestions. The basic points of the program were regarded by all the older members as directives, as indispensable essentials, and were passed on to newcomers as such.

What changed was the importance of the roles assigned respectively to the recovery principles and the recovery fellowship in AA. Up until 1939, AA was a small, unknown organization whose success record, though excellent, applied only over a tiny group of cases, and had not yet stood the test of time. Recovering alcoholics in the young movement relied upon each other and worked closely with one another. But the principles were the primary life transformers. The movement as such was not large enough or well enough established that it could be leaned on in lieu of faithful work with the Steps.

After AA became big, after it gained national recognition as a success, a new relationship became possible with it, one which had not previously been an option, and which the founders had not really foreseen. It became possible for an alcoholic to come to meetings and get sober without undergoing a real spiritual conversion, simply by the process of mimesis, or imitation - by the practice of something no more spiritual than the principle of when-in-Rome-do-as-the-Romans-do. Here is how AA-by-mimesis worked. The newcomer was joining himself to a big, successful organization, like the Elks or the Kiwanis. One of the customs of this particular club was that you did not drink; so if the newcomer liked the people he had met in AA and wanted to stay associated with them, he gave up drinking. He made AA meetings and AA people the focus of his social life and his leisure-time activities and stayed sober, more off the power of the pack than anything else.

AA worked in the first place because its Twelve Steps were a workable set of guidelines to spiritual experience. Growth of the movement made possible for a time a kind of parasitism in which partial practitioners and non-practitioners of the spiritual principles were able to feed off the strength of those who had undergone real spiritual experiences. But at this point in time, (1976) the parasites have already drained the host organism of a considerable portion of its life force. It is late in the day to be sounding a call for a return to the original way, the way of faithful practice of the full program. Still, a great deal of life is left in the fellowship, and a major revival is possible if enough of us see our dangerous situation, personally and as a fellowship, in time. What we need to do is clear enough. It is spelled out in the first seven chapters of the Big Book. What it all boils down to - especially for us old-timers - is a willingness to continue practicing all the principles in all our affairs today, rather than resting on our laurels, taking our stand on what we did way back when, in our first weeks and months of sobriety. But we must not fail to face squarely the need for change, the need for re-dedication. Complacency, smugness in our record of success, is our greatest enemy. If we, as a recovered-addict society, are unwilling to reverse our present course, the outlook is clear enough. We stand to recapitulate in less than a century what the Christian church has spent the last two thousand years demonstrating: that even the best of human institutions tend to deteriorate in time; and that size in spiritual organizations is all too often achieved at the expense of compromise of basic principles and the progressive abandonment of original goals and practices. I owe my life to AA. I hope we have the vision, and the humility, to change. I know we can if we will. This much is certain: the Twelve Steps are as inspired, as effective, as un-compromised, and as practicable now as they were when they were first put in writing thirty-seven years ago. (excèrpted from article listed above)

Remember these? For those who never saw the Burma shave signs, here is a quick lesson in our history of the 1930s and '40's. Before the Interstates, when everyone drove the old 2 lane roads, Burma Shave signs would be posted all over the countryside in farmers' fields. They were small red signs with white letters. Five signs, about 100 feet apart, each were containing 1 line of a 4 line couplet and the obligatory 5th sign advertising Burma Shave, a popular shaving cream. Here are some of the actual signs:

IN MEMORIAM

Things We Can Not Change

Dick L.- 25 years- Everybody's Group

Let's remember all our members who have lost friends & family members in our prayers.

Turning Point (by Janny B.)

Washington -- For me, the compulsion to drink was removed soon after I came to AA in June of 1977. I had been in the anti-war and women's movement for ten years and came to AA an atheist and a Marxist, and my "conscious spiritual development" was to elude me for a long time. As in all things in my life, I was still a rebel and called Trotsky my higher power. I had no question that I was an alcoholic. I heard many stories from others similar to my own drinking career. In those first several years I went to many meetings, did service, and had a sponsor. In retrospect, I am sure she was frustrated with my refusal to ... March 2000

Heard at a meeting:

Serenity is not the absence of disturbance, it is being okay with that disturbance.

Trust is belief that my decisions will work.

Faith is belief that the results will be beneficial.

The pain caused by getting sober is preferable to the pain of staying sick. (Steve G.)

Until you make peace with who you are, you'll never be content with what you have. (Burt B)

RULE 62

God won't give me more today than I can handle, but He didn't count on me piling on yesterday and tomorrow.

Facts are often stubborn things - they can't be ignored for long.

Too many people offer God prayers with claw marks all over them.

COMMITTEE REPORTS:

ENVELOPE SYSTEM: No representative present

STEERING COMMITTEE: Jack P., District 5 – reported. Steering Committee met on Tuesday, January 31. Districts represented were #2, #3, #4, #5, #6, #7, #8. Also in attendance were Frank M., Central Committee Chair, Terry B., Executive Secretary and John H., Ad-hoc Committee Chair. Exec Secretary reported that proceeds from the Fall Convention were $6000 and are in a Money Market Account. John H. presented the revision on the Operating Procedures and the Steering Committee will recommend that they be accepted by the Central Committee.

FINANCIAL REPORT Financial report was presented to members to review.

TREATMENT: Report e-mailed to Central Office after meeting: Topics Discussed: 1.) All meetings are covered. 2.) The list provided to the committee dated November 2005 included a Thursday meeting at Salvation Army. The AA schedule has it listed as an open meeting and not a TFC one. I spoke with Major Frances James, Asst. Director of the Salvation Army. The Thursday meeting is an open meeting and is facilitated by them and was never intended to be a TFC meeting. The Monday night remains to be facilitated by the TFC. 3.) ECMC list of people willing to do 12 Step calls has been incorporated with the Screener from Central Committee and they will assume responsibility for one list. Al, Lakeshore Group, Screener for Central Committee attended the TFC meeting and in the spirit of cooperation with Ken P. there will be one list used. I have met with Vet's hospital, Sheehan, Lighthouse, ECMC, and the Salvation Army to explain that all 12 step calls go through the Central Office during hours of operation and after hours the answering service will direct calls to the Screener. I will meet with Tri County when I am out of my cast and able to drive again. Tim K. Shawn C. and myself met with the Dr. Whitney and Dr. Blondell and the format remains the same with them calling the Central Office between 12- 2 pm during office operating hours but the Screener is called not Ken P. For the weekends they will call the answering service and the Screener will be called to arrange coverage to ECMC and other facilities and individuals that request a 12 step call. A separate list will no longer exist that gives an intended affiliation between AA and only ECMC. 4.) Bringing The Gap for clients and volunteers, open meeting schedules were printed by an outside company that was less expensive than CC copy and were distributed to the facilities. Also, distributed was the outline called "Information on Alcoholics Anonymous", which is provided by Central Office for free. 5.) The Committee would like to thank the Home Groups who have agreed to facilitate meetings. Abbott Men's, Three Legacies, Living Sober, Patchin, Tri County, Going To Any Lengths, Lakeshore, Lockport #1 and Iron Horse. 6.) From the schedule, Wednesdays at ECMC was not, listed as a TFC meeting. This meeting will now be included within the TFC committee and changes to the schedule will be noted. 8.) Spring Service convention flyers were distributed to Committee members. 9.) Changes to schedule: a.)TFC - 12 Step Call Monday-Saturday 7:00 pm Sunday 3:45 pm Monday, Tuesday, Thursday, Friday, Saturday, Sunday open meeting Wednesday open discussion meeting; b.)Sunday TFC 12 Step Call Veteran's Hospital is Wheel Chair accessible - please add.

A Mood, a Plague, An Illness

Murderous warm blood
 Rushes in anger
 Veins thicken
 A pain pulses behind the eyes
 Inciting a dangerous substance
 The endocrine prevails
 Teeth grind
 Muscles tighten
 And one becomes irate
 A will has gone bad
 And a brief inner self is shattered
 The present devoured my malicious entity
 Who comes invited most auspiciously
 Temerity awakens a wicked wrath
 Destroying from the inside out
 In a close future present
 The one becomes broken
 Rationality dispels itself
 And a plague of violence
 Takes its place in the pathway of thoughts
 Suppression and projection
 Breathe oxygen into the hearts hearth
 The one's soul is ignited
 And burns with fury
 The results of an action becomes regret
 Transforming an angered mood
 Into a prolonging disease
 Sickening the soul
 The only remedy
 Only fathomable antidote
 Is the gift of self- forgiving
 Wrapped in humility
 And tied off with the ribbon of acceptance
